IN RE: Rock Hill Telephone Company d/b/a) ORDER GRANTING Comporium Communications – Incumbent) REQUEST FOR Local Exchange Companies (ILEC) Service) CONFIDENTIAL Quality Reports.) TREATMENT

This matter comes before the Public Service Commission of South Carolina (Commission) on the request of Rock Hill Telephone Company d/b/a Comporium Communications (Rock Hill Telephone or the Company), filed April 27, 2007, for confidential treatment of the Company's first quarter Service Quality Report for 2007. In its request, Rock Hill Telephone states that certain information in the Company's report contains performance measurements and statistics that are not generally published by the Company and that the Company considers such to be confidential and proprietary information. According to Rock Hill Telephone, other parties may derive economic value from this data by obtaining it and disclosing it within commercial or competitive situations.

S.C. Code Ann. Section 30-4-40(a) (1) (Supp. 2006) states that a public body may exempt "trade secrets" from disclosure, which include materials containing references to competitive information. Since Rock Hill Telephone's report contains proprietary and competitively sensitive information concerning various parameters measured by the
